

From Chanel to Where?

Chanel College

ALUMNI PROFILE

Tom Smith

2017 Graduate

Tom Smith

Tom started at St Leos's with a sporting scholarship and recently received a full blue for competing in 7 sports (including cox on the row boats and water polo) and best and fairest for cross country. He has played A-Grade hockey for the University of Qld hockey team in the Brisbane league and achieved

Rookie of the year for the club and also made shadow for Qld Country Open hockey team. University is going well and he is still trying to work out what he is going to finally study. However is looking to transfer into a Bachelor of Physical Education next year which will give him the option of Sports Administration or High School PE teacher, Tom is leaning towards Teaching.

Senior Subjects Tom studied in Years 11 & 12

- Biological Science
- Chemistry
- Mathematics A
- English
- Business Communications and Technologies
- Physical Education
- 10432NAT Certificate III Christian Ministry
- Life Skills

Chanel College, your pathway to your Future!